A MESSAGE FROM MRS. HERRMANN

This week the USDA announced they will extend free lunches to all students until June 30th. This means all students are eligible to eat lunch for free through the end of the school year. This program does not cover the cost of students ordering an extra entree or just getting milk.

We are well on our way to reaching our walk-a-thon goal of $10,000! We have collected $2,925 so far! Our next turn-in day is Monday, October 26th.

Next week we are celebrating Red Ribbon Week! Please see the attached flyer of special events and out of uniform details for each day next week!

Our student council is sponsoring Boo grams this year! In your child's Friday envelope, you will find a sheet of Boo grams. They are .25 cents each. Students may return them filled out with the money to their homeroom by October 28th. The Student Council will add a piece of candy and they will be delivered on October 30th.

Wednesday, October 28th is a PTC $1.00 out of uniform day and students may also be out of uniform on Friday, October 30th for $1.00 sponsored by the Student Council.

Check out Market Day's featured product of the month and help raise funds for PTC!

Visit <https://www.marketdaylocal.com> and select St. John the Baptist PTC to order.

Reminder: 10% of all orders come back to PTC!
